Series Schedule:

October 13th (2pm) | Keys, Bags, Names at Bell Trace Senior Living

Keys Bags Names Words, about people living with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias who share stories of heartbreak and hope in aging. Don't miss this powerful new international film that explores the ways we can protect our brain health, connect with our loved ones and live a higher quality of life, even after diagnosis.

October 24th (5:30pm) | The Mole Agent at Monroe County History Center

A private investigator (Rómulo) hires an elderly man (Sergio) to go undercover in a nursing home in El Monte, Chile

October 27th (11am) | Bye Bye Birdie at Monroe County Public Library - Main Branch

This classic musical about star Conrad Birdie going to war is open to all ages. The film is presented in a "no-hush" dementia friendly setting

November 8th (3pm) | Love is Listening at The FAR Gallery

Love Is Listening: Dementia Without Loneliness will open your heart to a new way of being with people with dementia—a way that turns awkward to flow, isolation to intimacy, and loneliness to companionship.
